THE DAY OF THE CONFERENCE:

Travel Together

Meet at the church or a strategic location and begin the conference day together. Grab a coffee and some conversation as you prepare for the day.

Show Your Unity

One way of building unity with the men of your church is to provide every man who attends the conference a shirt or vest or sweater with the ISI logo and/or your church logo. This also will remind men for years to come about their time together at the conference.

Worship Together

The sanctuary at an ISI conference opens at 8:15 so position your men to be ready to enter together, sit together and worship together at the opening main session.

Divide and Conquer

Encourage men to attend different seminars based on their interests and their different seasons of life and then plan to meet afterward to debrief.

Gather for Lunch

Make a plan to get your men together for lunch in a specific location. Consider bringing coolers of sandwiches and drinks instead of buying the conference lunch. This break is a great time to discuss and process the morning seminars.

Stay for the Day

The conference will end promptly at 4:45 PM. Be sure to stay for the entire day and encourage the men of your church to do the same. Often the closing message is the highlight of the conference for men.

Order Recordings

One of the best ways to bring the conference home is to order MP3 downloads of both keynotes messages and each of the equipping seminars before you leave.

AFTER THE CONFERENCE:

Dinner the Night of the Conference

The best place to begin to capture the momentum of the men's conference is the ride home. Consider planning ahead to stop together for dinner.

Proverbs 27:17 Night

Plan an Iron Sharpens Iron Night where men gather to share what they learned at the conference and what they have been challenged by God to do. Use the time to pair men up to pray together.

Small Groups

Invite men to join a short-term small group of men. This group should be offered as a six-week commitment. Select leaders who will help you make personal invites. For resource ideas, contact Men's Ministry Catalyst or visit the website.
